Kia ora koutou

Thank you so much with your continued support as we work through another tricky time. Your kind words and emails have been so appreciated.

It was with huge disappointment that we had to cancel our Year 5 & 6 camp. Rest assured we are already thinking about a couple of day trips for these students in Term 4 to compensate. Once we know about the costs we will know where we stand with your camp fees.

We are watching closely the situation for our Year 7 & 8 camp in Term 4. A decision will be made prior to the school holidays.

It was delightful watching our students return to school after lockdown. They were so happy to see each other. The independence of our younger students saying goodbye at the gate has been great to see.

Thank you for your support in keeping unwell children home. Together we can keep the bugs at bay.

St Mary's School Health and Sexuality Programme Survey

The Ministry of Education requires all schools to consult with their community on the school's delivery of the Health Curriculum.

The Catholic Bishops of Aotearoa require our school to teach all subjects with a Catholic lens, so within the Health Curriculum we acknowledge that we are called to have life and have it to the full.

We want our young people to understand what it means to be made in the image and likeness of God and how this affects the way we live.

The shared understanding is that this learning is undertaken in partnership between whānau, parish and school.

This survey will help us to gather your thoughts and ideas about our Health Curriculum and help us further develop our programmes.

Your needs drive what we teach our children.

Many thanks in advance.

What three words best describe St. Mary's School?

You will find the link on our app or Facebook page.

St Joseph was a carpenter who earned an honest living to provide for his family. He is often referred to as St Joseph the Worker. Jesus regularly spoke of his mission as 'the work' given him by his Father. He completes this 'work' by the many 'works' that he performs, and he said that those who believe in him will do even greater works. (cf John 14:17-14) Since the creation of the universe, God has entrusted us with the task of continuing that effort.

Work is not just an occupation, doing something for money.

'(Work) is more than a mere doing; it is above all, a mission.

We collaborate with the creative work of God when, through our work, we cultivate and preserve creation; we participate in the spirit of Jesus, in his redemptive mission, when by our activity we give sustenance to our families and respond to the needs of our neighbour... Jesus invites us to follow in his footsteps through work. This way, in the words of St Ambrose, "every worker is the hand of Christ who continues to create and do good"' (Pope Francis 24 November 2017)

Noel Davis

Even though Mary MacKillop had many responsibilities as the founder of a growing Congregation of Sisters, she never lost touch with the people with whom the institute was working. She could still be found in the kitchen, the wash-house, the hospital bedside, the prison cell, the school-room, the slums or wherever the Sisters, or those dependent upon them, could be found. For Mary MacKillop it was always God's work and she was called to be an instrument of God's love.

'No duty is too little to be done well.' Mary MacKillop 1870

'Every injustice inflicted upon a person who works tramples on human dignity; and also the dignity of the one who does this injustice.'...exploitation and oppression; unjust salaries; profits above human dignity or even human life; domestic workers and mariners; child labour; human trafficking and migrant workers; pillaging Earth community... 'On the other hand, the vocation God gives us is so good—to create, to re-create, to work. But this can be done only when conditions are just and human dignity is respected.' FRANCIS 1 May 2020

Pope Francis urges us to unite ourselves to all those who work, to those who fight to achieve justice in their work, and to business people who treat those in their employ with justice.

May we use our gifts to make the world a safer and fairer place for all, to spread the gift of kindness and care, and to support and join with movements that address issues of justice. Let us remember that great things can be achieved when everyone does 'small things with great love.'

Why do we hold back?

When we dare to share from what we need

and others share our dare miracles weave their wonder

into the fabric of our days

and in our hearts we taste a little of the loaves and fish of ecstasy.

When others share from what they have received the madness multiplies

Why is it then that we hold back,

hoard for our tomorrows

and deny our hearts the food we crave—

the joy that flows from sharing with those we meet along the way? Noel Davis

'God loves generosity in us.'

Mary MacKillop 1882

When needed, Mary was happy to work behind the scenes to help out. While in Arrowtown in 1897, Sisters said she cheerfully 'took on the household chores' preparing lunch and washing dishes. At another time in Sydney she attended the annual concert. While the Sisters organised the children doing their items, Mary looked after the others making sure they could be found when it was time to perform. No matter how humble the task, Mary believed 'we can all work quietly doing our best for God'. 1871

Mary MacKillop's was a practical holiness – she rolled up her sleeves, got her hands dirty and responded to the cries of those who struggled in life. Doing ordinary things extra ordinarily well is a Josephite trait. 'Jesus himself was well aware of the power of small steps. He would constantly use small, seemingly mundane moments and encounters to heal those whom he met along the way of ordinary daily life, bringing them great renewal of purpose and life.'

NZCBC Social Justice Statement 2019

Mary MacKillop filled each moment to the brim with love. She 'used her God given gifts to bring hope and build the capacity of those at the fringes of the society of her time. ... She did this by acting justly, deciding courageously, loving compassionately, and walking humbly with her 'good God' in the midst of daily life.' Monica Cavanagh rsj 6 August 2021

'Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love.' Mother Theresa

Work is fundamental to the dignity of a person. We do not get dignity from power or money. We get dignity from work. 'There are many slaves today, men and women who are not free to work; they are forced to work in order to survive and nothing more. It is forced labour, unjust, ill-paid and leads men and women to live with their dignity trampled underfoot.' FRANCIS 1 May 2020

Te Wiki o te Reo Māori - Māori Language Week

Last week we celebrated Te Wiki o te Reo Māori. While we are always on a journey of learning with our Te Reo here at St Mary's, it was fantastic to celebrate along with other New Zealanders, our Māori language and the culture which is so unique to Aotearoa.

E Tipu e ako...
Where learning grows...

We joined the rest of Aotearoa on the 14th, each participating in an activity involving our Te Reo in the classroom and we also had a House Competition involving lots of fun Te Reo challenges.

Kia kaha tonu te Reo koutou! - Keep learning everyone!

INTEGRITY

Ngākau pono

People with integrity walk safely, but those who follow crooked paths will slip and fall. (Prov 10:9)

In Term 3 we are focusing on the Gospel Value of Integrity.

We would love you to take the time to talk about and reinforce each aspect of our ICIC Gospel Values with your child.

There are 4 skills that we can work towards.

Fairness

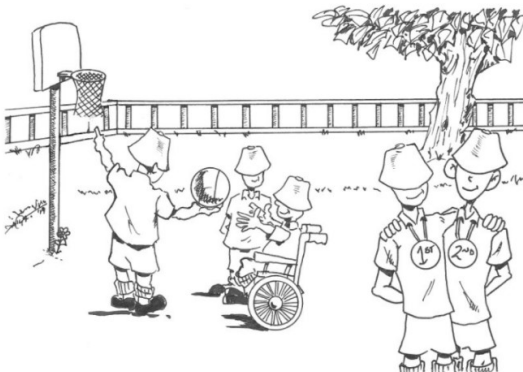

Treat others as I want to be treated.

Let someone go before you.

Enjoy the game whether you win or lose.

Handle decisions made, even if you don't agree.

Treat everyone equally and fairly.

COVID ALERT LEVEL 2

Dear Brother and Sisters,

We do not know how long we will be in Level 2 or whether the increased restrictions in this level might be relaxed a little at a later date while still keeping us in Level 2. Therefore, these instructions apply in parishes until Tuesday 21 September, at which point I will communicate with you again:

There are to be no public Masses or other liturgical events or in-person parish gatherings in the Diocese.

Churches are to be closed except for funerals, as it is difficult to monitor contact tracing, social distancing, mask wearing, and numbers.

Funerals can take place with a maximum of 50 people in total, with the required social distancing, contact tracing, and wearing of masks. Funerals can take place in a church, and meetings with the family can take place with observance of the Level 2 requirements. The funeral director's instructions must be followed.

Anecdotally it seems that many people are feeling vulnerable with the high transmissibility of the delta virus, and its presence in Wellington in this outbreak. The high level of compliance with the government's restrictions during this outbreak is another indicator of this personal concern, and also shows that people feel responsible for one another and for the common good of all.

✠ John A Cardinal Dew
Apostolic Administrator of Palmerston North Diocese

Social Justice Week 12 – 18 September 2021

Social Justice Week is scheduled by the NZ Catholic Bishops for next week. Each year there is a different theme. This year the theme of Social Justice Week is A Culture of Encounter: Be the Church, focussing on encounter and community through the lens of Pope Francis' latest encyclical, Fratelli Tutti on fraternity and social friendship. Parish communities are encouraged to take the time to sit with the messages of the encyclical and feel inspired to foster a community of encounter. Caritas Aotearoa New Zealand is the agency set up by the Bishops to resource parishes with material so each parish can focus on the Social Justice theme as each parish sees fit. Resources can be accessed at caritas.org.nz Type 'Social Justice Week' and that will give access to material available. There may be a Workshop for people who wish to lead parish groups. Caritas will advise each parish directly if so. In view of Covid and the current restrictions, your parish community may choose to focus on the Caritas material later. That's fine. Social Justice isn't confined to a one week slot.

RCIA—If you are interested in becoming a Catholic or know someone who is, Please contact the Office and one of our priests will make contact with you to begin the process. Those wanting to be received into The Church will do this at the Easter Vigil in 2022.
